The SRB

The Single Resolution Board (SRB) is the central resolution authority within the Banking Union (BU). Together with the National Resolution Authorities (NRAs) of participating Member States (MS), it forms the Single Resolution Mechanism (SRM). The SRB works closely with the NRAs, the European Commission (EC), the European Central Bank (ECB), the European Banking Authority (EBA) and National Competent Authorities (NCAs). It contributes to safeguarding financial stability.

Its mission is to ensure an orderly resolution of failing banks with minimum impact on the real economy and on public finances of the participating Member States and beyond. Therefore, the SRB is granted with specific tasks and responsibilities to prepare for, and carry out, the resolution of banks that are failing or likely to fail.

The SRB is also responsible for managing the Single Resolution Fund, as established by the SRM Regulation, to ensure that medium-term funding support is available while a bank is being restructured and/or resolved.

The SRB is a self-financed agency of the European Union.

The job

The SRB is organising a call for expressions of interest with a view to establishing a reserve list of Temporary Agents for the position of Senior Bank Resolution Expert.

1. Profile

The jobholder steers, coordinates and contributes to the work of one or more multi-disciplinary and multinational Internal Resolution Team(s) [IRT(s)], which are responsible for one or more banks.

He/she supervises, is directly involved in and contributes to the work on regular deliverables of the IRT(s) during the resolution planning cycle (resolution plan, determination of the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities (MREL), identification of substantive impediments to resolvability and recovery plan assessment (among others) and in crisis management action, if applicable, with a focus on economic and financial aspects.

He/she represents the SRB at senior level with institutions and their advisors, NRAs, the ECB, the EC and other institutions.

He/she supports the Head of Unit to complete his/her tasks. He/she may be requested to act as Team Leader, coordinating and supervising the work of other team members.

The jobholder may also be required to contribute to the development of SRB policies or horizontal tasks.

1.1 Tasks

In particular, the jobholder will be asked to perform the following tasks:

- Resolution planning - management and coordination
 - Steer, coordinate and contribute to one or several IRT(s) to ensure timely deliverables as regards regular resolution planning work (drafting of resolution plans, MREL decisions and monitoring, resolvability assessment, recovery plan assessment and briefings/presentations), crisis management work if applicable (e.g. preparation for failing or likely to fail; resolution decision and scheme; coordinating other work streams such as valuation, marketing arrangements) and ensure quality control;
 - Organise and chair IRT-interactions with relevant external stakeholders as appropriate (e.g. workshops with institutions; exchanges with ECB joint supervisory teams; resolution colleges if applicable; crisis management groups (CMGs) if applicable) and ensure appropriate information exchange with such stakeholders; foster the cooperation and relationship with external stakeholders;
 - Coordinate closely with relevant NRAs to facilitate smooth process in particular where a Board decision or a joint decision with NRAs of non-participating Member States is required; if applicable, coordinate the overall relationship with a specific NRA for the unit;
 - Ensure close cooperation with internal stakeholders with a view to ensuring a sound and consistent approach and smooth processes;
 - Follow the market trends, regulatory updates and the performance of the institution;
 - Ensure that the Head of Unit and Senior Management are regularly and appropriately briefed on relevant developments and support the Head of Unit in the implementation of the Work Programme and in dealing with matters pertaining to, among other things, human resources, performance, output and strategic direction.

- Policy
 - Actively participate in SRB horizontal work streams (task forces, networks, committees, etc.), developing a good working relationship with colleagues therein;
 - Update the rest of the unit on relevant developments on such policy work and promote its implementation at unit level.
- Carry out any other tasks requested by line management in the interest of the service.

The selection process

4. How to apply

Candidates must apply through the EU CV Online system⁵ via this link:

https://ec.europa.eu/dgs/personnel_administration/open_applications/CV_Cand/index.cfm?fuseaction=premierAcces

Before applying, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria.

To be able to apply online via the EU CV online database, candidates must first create an account or sign in to an existing account. If not done already, candidates must first fill in the electronic CV, write the motivation letter and apply to the call for expressions of interest. Applications shall be made in English to be considered. It is the sole responsibility of each applicant to complete ALL relevant fields of his/her online application and to submit it before the deadline for submission. All technical questions concerning EU CV online must be sent through the Contact page of EU CV online.

It is strongly advised not to wait until the last few days before the deadline for applying, since heavy internet traffic or connection difficulties could lead to problems.

Once the deadline has passed, candidates will no longer be able to register.

Deadline for applications: 11/01/2021 at midday (12:00 Brussels time).

No supporting documents are required at this stage – these will be required at a later stage.

⁵ EU CV Online is the tool used by the European Commission for recruitment of staff on temporary basis.

On completion of the online registration, candidates will receive on screen a registration number, which they must note. This will be the reference number of the candidate in all matters concerning his/her application. If the candidate does not receive a number, the application has not been registered.

After a correct submission of an application, candidates will receive an automated acknowledgement of receipt of their application to the email account indicated in their application. It is the candidate's responsibility to verify that he/she provided the correct e-mail address.

Candidates are invited to indicate any special arrangements that may be required if invited to attend the assessment.

If the candidate requires more information, he/she will have to send an e-mail to SRB-RECRUITMENT@srb.europa.eu.

5. Steps of the selection procedure

5.1 Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the Selection Panel will verify the submitted applications against the eligibility criteria described in Section 2 "Eligibility criteria". Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the "Selection criteria" under Section 3.

5.2 Assessment of the eligible applications

The Selection Panel will analyse the motivation letters and CVs of eligible applicants with reference to:

- The Selection Criteria ("Essential" and "Advantageous")
- The overall assessment of the quality & suitability of the application based on the requirements of the post.

Upon completion of the assessment, the Selection Panel will establish a shortlist of candidates best matching the needs of the Agency for the functions and duties mentioned in this vacancy notice and non-retained candidates will be notified of the status of their application.

5.3 Invitation to assessment phase

Following the evaluation of the applications, the most suitable candidates for the post will be invited to an assessment, which will be held in Brussels or remotely.

Details of the time, date and address of the assessment will be communicated to candidates in due time.

5.4 The assessment phase

An interview and a written test, and/or other tests with the Selection Panel will enable it to carry out an assessment of the candidate according to the "Selection criteria" described in Section 3.

The assessment phase will be conducted in English.

5.5 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The candidates' applications will be checked against supporting documents provided in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

The candidate will be disqualified from the selection process if at any stage of the procedure it is established that the information provided in the application has been knowingly falsified or incorrect.

You will also be disqualified if you:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.6 Reserve list

The Selection Panel will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list. This draft will be submitted to the Chair of the SRB for approval. The adopted reserve list will be valid until 31/12/2021. The validity of the reserve list may be extended by decision of the Chair of the Board.

Candidates should note that inclusion on a reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in the SRB.

Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by the SRB (e.g. including a further interview).

Other important information

6. General information

6.1 Equal opportunities

The SRB applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on the ground of sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.

6.2 Selection Panel

A Selection Panel will be appointed for this selection procedure and will be composed of at least 3 members (and alternates), including a member designated by the Staff Committee of the SRB.

The names of the Selection Panel members will be communicated to the shortlisted candidates in the invitation letter to their assessment.

Under no circumstances should candidates approach the Selection Panel, either directly or indirectly, concerning the selection procedure. The Selection Panel's internal proceedings are strictly confidential and any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. The Chair of SRB reserves the right to disqualify any candidate who disregards these instructions.

6.3 Approximate timetable

The selection process may take some months to be completed; no information will be released during this period.

6.4 Appointment and conditions of employment

On the basis of the reserve list, successful candidates may be offered a contract as a Temporary Agent, AD8, in accordance with the SRB's Implementing Provisions on the employment of Temporary staff under Article 2f of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Union for an initial period of 3 years (including a probationary period of nine months).

The contract may be renewed for a further period of three years. After the second period, the contract may be renewed for an indefinite period.

The place of employment is Brussels (Belgium), where the SRB has its premises.

Temporary Agents will be required to demonstrate before their first promotion the ability to work in a third official language of the EU.

6.5 Remuneration

Successful candidates who are offered a contract of employment will, on entry into service, be placed in step 1 or step 2 of the relevant grade, according to the length of their professional experience. The basic monthly salaries for grade AD8, as at 1 July 2019 in Brussels, are:

- Step 1: € 7 072.70
- Step 2: € 7 369.90.

In addition to the basic salary, staff members may be entitled to various allowances depending on their personal situation, such as expatriation allowance, household allowance, dependent child allowance, education allowance, etc. The salary is subject to a Community tax deducted at source and staff members are exempt of national taxation.

6.6 Protection of personal data

The purpose of processing the data submitted by candidates is to evaluate applications in view of possible recruitment at the SRB. The personal information requested by the SRB from candidates will be processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Union, L 295 of 21 November 2018). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data. In this regard, please see the Privacy statement.

6.7 Appeal procedure

Pursuant to Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union, any candidate may submit to the SRB a complaint against an act adversely affecting him/her. Any such complaint should be made to:

SRB Single Resolution Board
